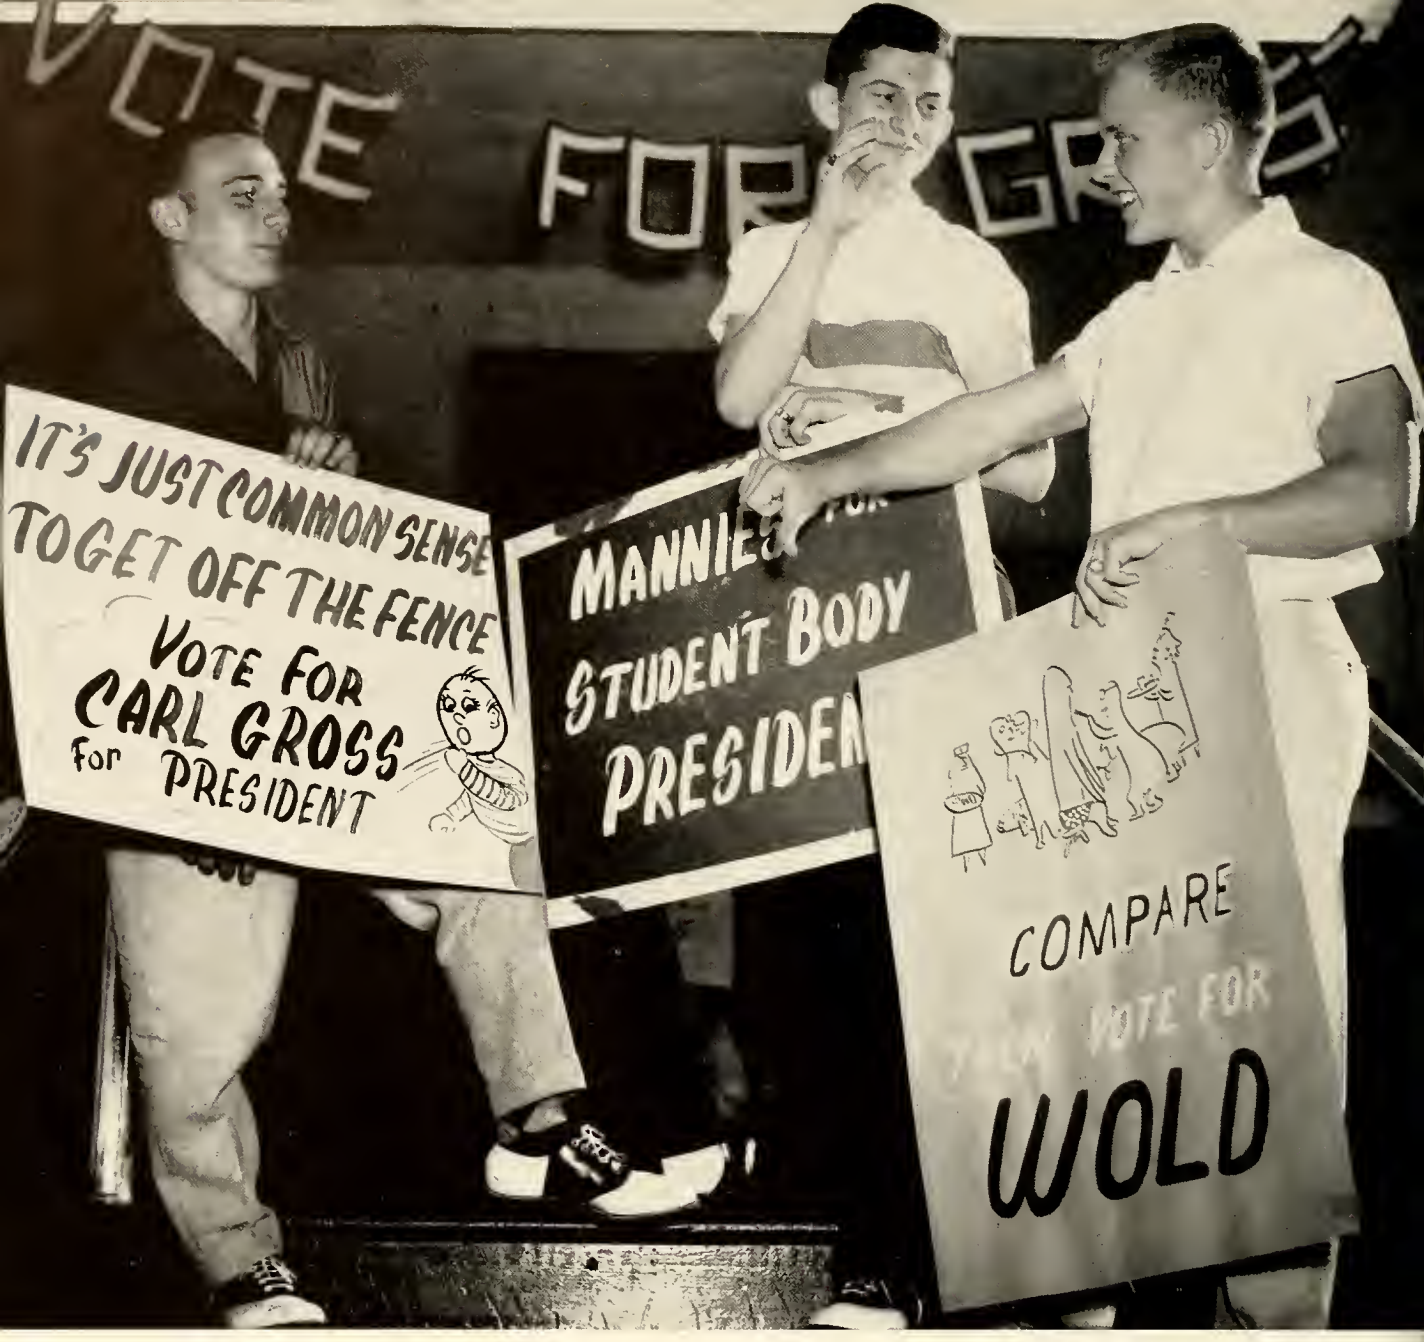
Tales Told Around Tig-Arena



Comparing each other's campaign posters before the students cast their ballots are candidates Carl Gross, Morry Mannies, and John Wold. More campaigning took place this year since there were three candidates instead of two.

To make sure the skirt will fit, Sue Garrison holds the pattern up to her in front of the mirror before starting to cut out the material.

Hours of study and research go into the making of the finished product of a senior term paper. Many periods are spent in the school library as Frank Shanabarger, Jim DeLawter, George Pope, Pat Rommelfanger, Sterling Howard, Judy Fechtman, and Carriebelle Butzin look up final statistics for their research report.

Ones to PHS Students

Almost late for class. Pat Hinton receives help from George Bachman and Mike Swartz in picking up her books while Pat Bishop and Craig Gaunt look very amused about the whole affair. Students will always remember the times when the last bell sounded, all of the books dropped out of the locker, and it took at least five minutes to gather them up.

"Familiarity breeds contempt" is a proverb that does not always prove true to students of PHS. The ramp symbolizes to people of Peru High School the traditional walk to and from our classes. Sometimes it is a long walk.

It's All In A Day's Work

"Practice makes perfect" thinks Dan Roberts as he spends his spare time brushing up on concert music.

Peruvian shutterbug Joyce Featherstone.

Freshmen Roma Williams and Phillip Dame purchase the first of many canteen tickets from Mrs. Swartz, canteen sponsor, the first night that they attend high school canteen.

All Stars provide good dancing music for Sandra Mavrick, Harry Westcott, Ray Fisher and Linda Caple as they dance at the Boys' League Sweater Hop.

"It's too early in the morning to dance," pleads Mike Gray and Gerald Mathias as Rosellen Wilson and Judy Bostic try to get them to dance one more number. Linda Peters and Pat Spohn are still wide awake as they "cut another rug."

Worn Out, But Happy

In Work And Pleasure

Homemakers all! It is the opinion of the Industrial and the Home Economics Departments that dexterity not only in sanding wood but leveling a measuring cup is positively essential. A poll taken of the students participating in the experiment including Mike Swartz and George Jackson proves this theory, (as so this publication has been told, and in no uncertain terms.)

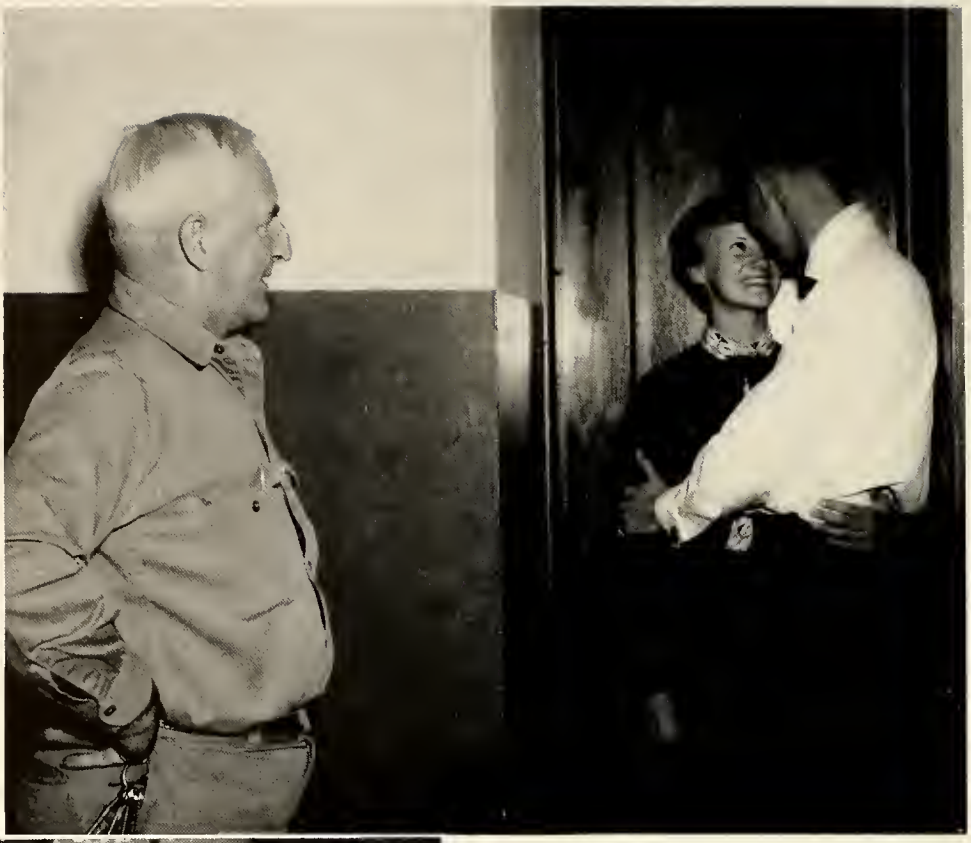
For the benefit of biology students Alex Bondar, Dian DeLawter, Linda Warren, Robert Brough, Dick Martin, Mickie Smith and Judy Morris, a new laboratory was added to the biology department this year.

Little girls shouldn't play with fire, but this one does—and with finesse. Carol Baker, a member of the Paraphernalia, does one of the many routines of the baton twirlers. They haven't burned themselves or the football field yet!

We Take Time Out To Play

Senior band members performing at the last basketball game are: Row 1: Gothard, L. Williams, C. Butzin, M. Wilkinson and S. Rouch. Row 2: B. Miller, Sue Branam, Thomas, Reineke, S. Zavokas, S. Holmes and K. Hancock. Row 3: R. Kramer, Wright, Mygrant, S. Landis, La-hee, Penn and Gooch. Row 4: Brower, Whitworth, J. Lighty, Sumpter and Mishler. Dan "Ward" Roberts directs the Alma Mater.

"Save, me, John," cries Peter Pan (Lynn Morecraft) to Diane Shrock as Captain Hook (Jean Arnold) tries to stab Peter. Tinker Bell (Judy Higginbotham) waves her magic wand while the Mad Hatter (Phyllis Mills) tries to keep John from helping Peter Pan.



"Of all things to discover," says Mr. Flora. Two students find themselves in a most embarrassing situation when discovered during hall rounds.

"What's this school coming to," wonders Earl Delph, principal, as he displays some of the unusual articles that are found in the students' lockers during a school year.

Reminiscent Scenes

Being sent to the office for misbehaving and for not doing their lessons are Dave Fisher, Bob Fenelle and Henry Guyer as Mr. Rufe welcomes them with paddle in hand.

A better picture of the structure and activity of an insect may be obtained by looking through a microscope. Judy Townsend tries it out as she looks at an object through the 'scope.

Often Involve Mystifying Discoveries

Tired feet belonging to Joanne Cole are soothed in an imaginary stream as George Pope plays prince and removes her slipper.

Stardust seems to reign supreme over the Christmas Dance as Nancy Phillabaum and Fred Fechtman look dreamily into space.

What a homecoming, if you could come home to the Queen, Marilyn McMinn! Marilyn ruled the Peru-Hartford City football game.

Regal, as a queen should be, Sandra Zavakos reigns over the annual Rodeo festivities, which open each year's dramatic productions.

Royalty Reigns Supreme

Something new to the homecoming court this year was a maid of honor. Homecoming attendants to Queen Marilyn McMinn are: Mary Lou Miller, Ruth Nash, Sue Branam and Rosellen Wilson.

Rodeo attendants to Queen Sandra Zavakos are: Row 1: Karen Lindsey, Judie Doran and Nancy Phillabaum. Row 2: Joyce Buckalew, Marilyn McMinn, Nancy Morgan and Lois Life.

While Workers Produce The Show

Instructions on the operation of the stage lighting are shown by Jim Harmon to Larry Hemdal, Jim Burnett, Dick Cress and Connie Welch.

Final preparations before homecoming night are made by art students Jim Robinson, Tom Sorenson and Audra Brower as they put the finishing touches on the queen's throne.

"This switch turns the light on." explains Jim Russell to Jim DeLawter at dress rehearsal. These boys run the spotlights for all of the high school plays, rodeos, concerts and operettas.

PHS Talents May Lead

Ah—The good old days when Dad and Mom were neither good nor old. The Rodeo brought back these ancient times and delved even further into our pioneer history. Then to the future! Such diversity is evident even in the above shot as the dry, western people attend a day at the beach.

In his usual curious manner, Lance Middlekauff has to find out what is so interesting to Sonja Gross.

During the 1955 Rodeo the audience was taken into the mysterious outer space, and in the very next scene they were able to travel through the "wild" west. Approximately 240 members of PHS took part in making the Rodeo a success.

"Outer Space" portrayed the future through the launching of a rocketship and a trip to the moon. The wild and woolly west along with the old-time bar room was pictured in the "Western Scene."

The final scene was centered around personality sketches which were posed in picture frames and came to life as the scene progressed.

To Road of Fame

"Let's get the ball rolling," is the unanimous agreement of directors, Jerry Webster, Sonja Rouch, James Noble, Carriebelle Butzin, James Hawker and John Beasley as they have a conference before a Rodeo rehearsal.

Luny Lunar, king of the space frontier, is being carefully studied by the space cadets.

Pretty as a picture are dance students Fred Rouch, Sara McCleary, Lucinda 'Metzger, Don McCain, Nancy Heppe, and John Miley as teacher Janis La-hee prepares to sing "Getting to Know You."

People Come To Life In "Our Town"

Thornton Wilder's "Our Town" was lifted to glory by the 1956 senior class March 22 and 23, as they presented the first inkling of "Theater in the Round" on a Peru High School stage.

The three-act play portrayed an intimate look at the citizens of Grover's Corners, New Hampshire, in their growing up, marrying, living and dying.

A typical love affair between two young people was climaxed by a moving wedding scene. Then in the hope of finding greater understanding, we were transported through time to the cemetery on the hill and discovered how futile it is to wish to return to life. Living people flit through life, knowing little of true joy and happiness, not even taking time to look at each other.

"I now pronounce you man and wife." Jon Noland weds Nancy Brookman and Morry Mannies while Meda Funk, Sondra Landis, Beth Holmes and Mary Jo Burkhart look on enviously.

Seniors give their last curtain call. Row 1: M. Hein, S. Rouch, B. Holmes, Berryman, L. Wernz, P. Roberts, S. Holmes, Wold, Vance, Washington, M. Mannies, J. Webster, Brookman, Fowble, Butzin, Brower, S. Landis, Funk, M. Roberts and Wright. Row 2: R. Miller, Whitworth, S. Thomas, Dye, Howard, Wickerham, Reineke, Catey, D. Roberts, K. Hull, Noland, E. Mishler, Gooch, J. Fultz, M. Burkhart, Bakehorn and Penn.

A prayer for health and strength is offered by Peter Marshall, portrayed by Sam Stegman, for his wife Kathryn, played by Kathleen O'-Connor, during one of the more serious moments in the Junior Play.

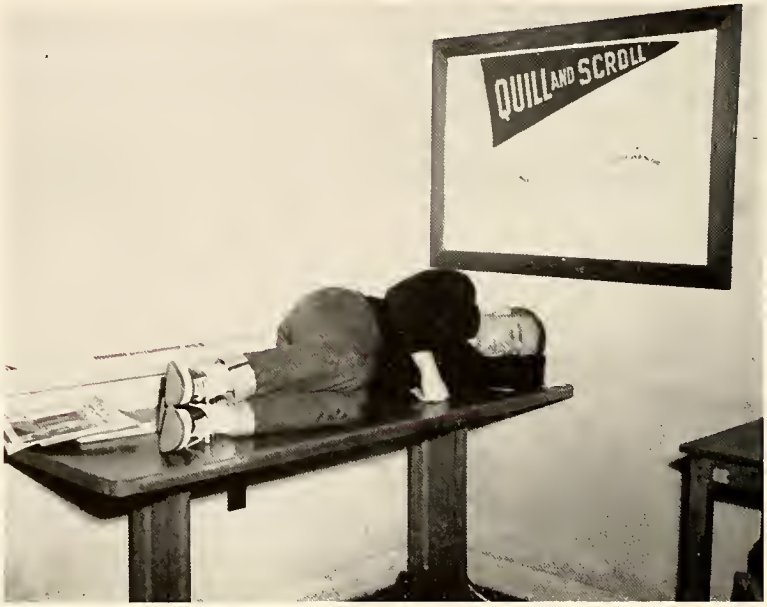
Peter Marshall was the subject of the Junior Class Play, "A Man Called Peter," presented February 11. A Presbyterian minister who in later life received an appointment as chaplain in the United States Senate, Marshall was truly a remarkable man. The play depicts his sparkling personality and understanding as he tries to help a young girl unite her family and work out her marriage problems. When his wife, Kathryn, is stricken with tuberculosis, Peter strives to strengthen her faith in God.

The play was adapted from the book by Kathryn Marshall and dramatized by John McGreevey.

Junior Class Portrays Life of Marshall

"Lock Lomond" is sung by the Junior Play cast: O'Connor, Grund, S. Stegman, Polk, Heppe, Short, Charters, Mackey, McGrew Buckalew, B. Hancock ,B. Stegman, L. Peters, J. Reed, Ingersoll and Sally Akers ,student director.

Dancing, Auditoriums, Provide Numerous



"Too pooped to pop." Carl Gross finds his duties just too-o-o-o tiring! Carl catches a few extra winks in the Publications Office.

Different types of study are displayed by PHS students in the Tig-Arena. Boys and girls had to study in the Tig-Arena and Auditorium for two consecutive days while the freshmen were taking I.Q. tests in the study hall.

Pastimes For Students

Walking on clouds to put the finishing touches to the Christmas Dance is Dale Bakehorn. Dale is attempting to hang the mobile in the center of the gym.

Autumn Leaves make Carl Smith, Sharon Branam, Joan Crawford, Buddie Penn, John Wold and Jane Ferrara pause at the Country Club entrance to admire the outstanding decorations. This was the first year that the Thanksgiving Dance was staged at the Country Club.

"Old Man River" has become one of Pruth McFarlan's traditional songs when he visits PHS every year for his annual convocation. Mr. McFarlan has entertained PHS students for the last five years.

Planting a kiss on her cheek, Jerry Wise proves that he does not think that the Junior-Senior Prom's mermaid is artificial. Joyce Mathias and Betty Miller look on with envy while they wish they were honored with a kiss.

Students Enjoy Themselves

"Blue skies, all of them gone," sings the Swing Choir before a performance. They are: Kay Fuqua, John Wold, Nancy Brookman, Jerry Thomas, Buddie Penn, Nancy Morgan, Jon Whitworth, Marilyn McMinn, Pete Redmon, Bette Hancock, J. D. Finster and Carol Wittig. Judy Anne Myers accompanies the Swing Choir for their numerous presentations during the year.

"School spirit is what we want" shouts Earl Delph, principal, as he leads the student body in a yell during a pep session.

Stepping out of his more serious role as principal, Mr. Delph leads the school in a yell whenever he feels the student body is lacking in spirit or when an important game is coming up.

Delph Changes Tune

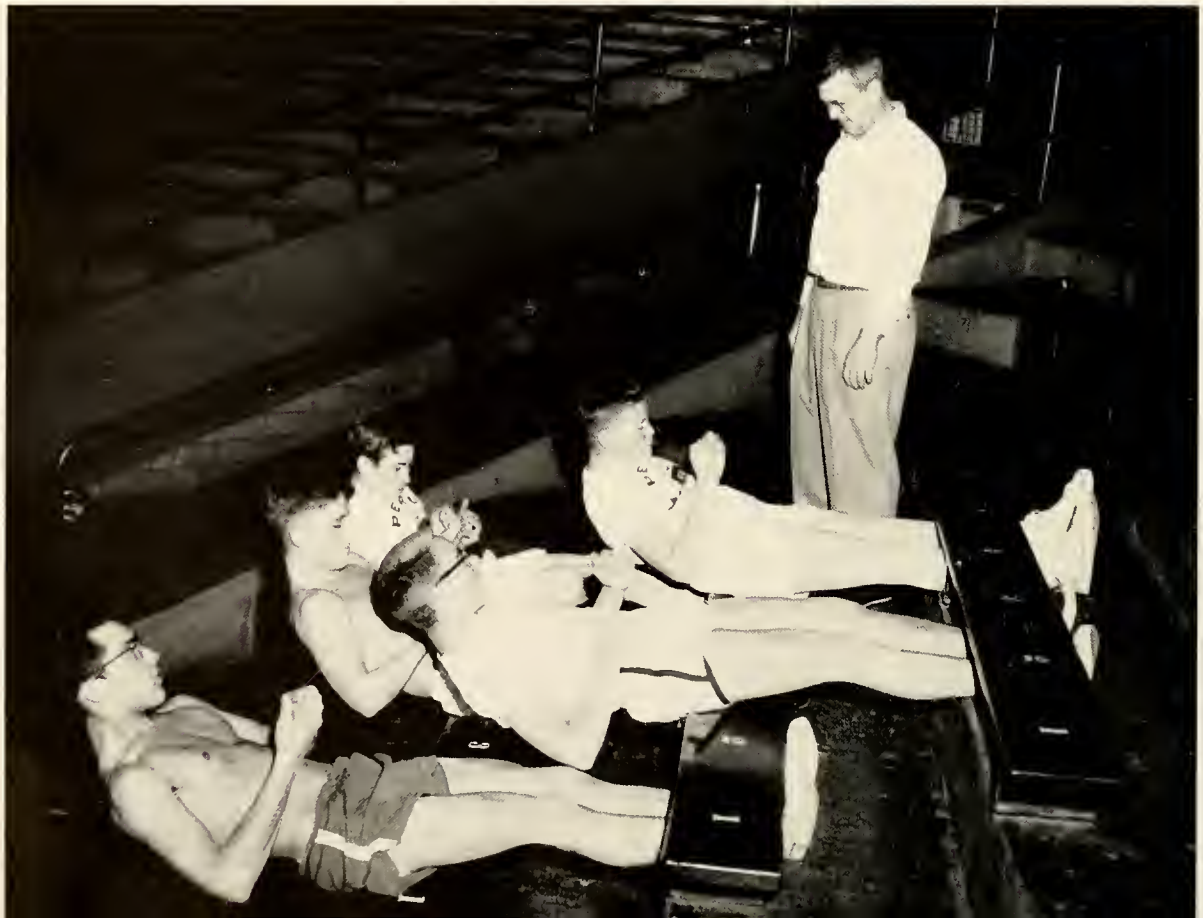
We're for you and that's no lie. Peru High School students are not only for PHS, but for Mr. Delph, who helps arouse their school spirit.

Changes Made By New Teacher

Plans are made in advance by gym instructors, Mary Jean Biddle and Gene Wernz, as they discuss the activities that the gym students will participate in during the school year.

Mrs. Biddle innovated a demerit system to make sure the girls dressed for gym. Also the girls got plenty of sore muscles from doing daily exercises at the beginning of each class.

"One, two, three, four." Gene Wernz keeps gym boys, John Appleton, Bob Smith, Terry Amos ,Larry Adams and John Arland busy. The boys do this exercise in order to strengthen their stomach muscles.



Girls Try Desperately To Outwit Boys

"Spike that ball," must be the thought running through the girls' minds as they attempt to defeat the boys in a thrilling volleyball game.

Oh! It's a big stretch. The moans and groans of the girls' gym classes can be heard ringing through the halls of PHS as they do their warm-up exercises.

Topnotch Tiger distanceman. Harold Chatlosh, made an outstanding record of 11:04 at the Logansport-Peru cross country meet. Harold was high point man during the cross- country season.

Tigers Won State, at least in wrestling, when Jim Cress, PHS senior, became state wrestling champion in the 138-pound division.

Late again—"Haste makes waste" thinks Larry Adams as he dresses hurriedly so he won't be late to geometry class.

Where there's a Will, there's a Way, even if you have to stand to study, prove Sharon Jordan, Charles Wilburn, Bill McDaniel, Glenn Householder and Roberta Kramer as they prapare their daily assignments.

Students Find Various Ways To Study

Getting advice from his elder, is Jim Rody as Susie whispers sweet nothings into his ear while they are dancing.

Spring fever captures Judy Higginbotham, Sara McCleary and Dick Cress as they study in the great out of doors.

Well-Known Scenes and Cords

Insurance against tuberculosis is evident as Mrs. LeMaster places a patch on Jerry Fuqua's arm.

"Testing, one-two-three," says Robert Showalter, new speech and hearing therapist, as he tests George Bachman's hearing.

Students patiently wait to get their meal tickets punched by Adeline Crone, director of the cafeteria.

Paint Vivid Memories

Look before you leap warns Nancy Brookman, Dan Roberts and Betty Miller as Joan Spencer perches precariously atop the banister.

Unforgettable Classes

We'll Always Have These Moments To Remember

Completed at last—after four long years we are finally ready to put the finishing touches to our scrapbooks of high school memories. Before closing them for the last time, though, we glance back over them reminiscently.

Our first section, "The Green Years," recalls all the memories of our freshmen year. Oh, yes, we had almost forgotten about this old snapshot of us being ushered around on our first day of school by our big sisters and brothers. Gosh, did they really mean it when they said we'd only have four minutes to get to and from the old to the new building? We may have been "greenies," but we were smart enough to know that we'd never make it to classes in that length of time.

Then our "firsts" all seemed to come in a rush—our first Thanksgiving and Christmas dances, our first rodeo, our first football game —remember how proud we were to participate in the championship CIC parade?

Yes, we were inbetween as sophomores as we eagerly ran to choose our class rings, which we were convinced were the neatest ever. We were in the spotlight again, tripping over the stage in "Naughty Marietta." By now we were more than eager to sing "Oh Hail, Peru High School, you sure are a nice school—."

"What a Life"—our junior play and our junior year. It was quite a life as we set the stage to prove that we had unsurpassed dramatic talent. We were proud, too, when we turned our rings on commencement night. Oh. we really hated to see the seniors go—we'd miss them—but we were kind of anxious, too.

Decisions are plentiful. Senior class officers Jim Robinson, treasurer; Joan Crawford, president; Todd Middlekauff, vice president; and Roberta Kramer, secretary, are busily looking through literature concerning different colleges to decide where they shall attend school next year.

In Memoriam

Leonard G. Hendricks

July 25, 1937—January 25, 1955
Member of the 1956 Graduating Class

Goofing off before school resumes is the senior boys' quartet Jon Noland, John Wold, Dan Roberts, and Jerry Webster. These boys can practice in the most unusual positions.

We've Come A Long Way Together, And Now That Last Walk

Not everyone has a girl hidden in his locker. Glenn Householder smugly watches the amazement on the faces of Ed Mishler, Carl Gross, and Jon Noland as Betty Miller pops out of his locker.

The last section of our scrapbook of high school memories is crammed full of senior memories. The first picture in this section brings to mind that first day as seniors. Remember how we thought we'd just never learn how to work those darn locker combinations? Then there was that proud feeling that came when we could at last wear our much-painted cords to school.

After that it all seemed to come in a rush—electing our class officers, choosing invitations and name cards, perspiring over those eternal term papers, and, ah, yes, panting over Jimmy Dean — all this sandwiched between ball games, speech meets, rodeo practice, "Our Town" practice—and then, at last we too are prepared to take that last walk, knowing that our class really was the best ever. It was hard work but we know in our hearts that we wouldn't have missed it for anything.

"The pause that refreshes" is enjoyed by senior "saints" Mike Swartz, Paul Bingaman, Don Williams, Ronald Daine, Larry Sharpf and Jim Robinson during the half-time show of the Has been-Will be game. Coach Ross (Beaver) Kuntz provides them with goodies.

Has Been's Whip Will Be's In Thrilling Overtime

"All the way, Saints," yells coach Ross Beaver Kuntz as he and Saint Williams give moral support to the team during a crucial moment of the overtime.

"I can't believe it!" exclaims Saint Willie Williams as he looks with disbelief at an uncanny shot made by Saint Larry Sharpf.

Juniors Fill Seniors' Shoes

Even class officers have to study. Dan McGrew, junior class president; Linda Peters, vice-president; Ruth Nash, class secretary; and Nancy Morgan, treasurer, discover this as they try to keep up with the ever moving world of education.

During the year the junior class, under the direction of these four people, presented the Junior Play, "A Man Called Peter," and the Junior-Senior Prom. They proved by their work that they would very successfully fill the shoes of the out-going seniors. They were assisted throughout the year by the class sponsor.

The juniors practiced being seniors during Senior Week, but they were glad to see their "big buddies" again, when they returned for commencement exercises.

Sophomores Admire Cats

Sophomore class officers "dig those crazy cats." The large tiger was given to PHS by the seniors of '55, and the "wee" one was a contribution of Bostic's Sporting Goods.

The officers shown admiring the animals are John Cooke, president; Lance Middlekauff, vice-president; Ann Stegman, secretary; and Susie Dyer, class treasurer.

Freshmen Memories Begin

The freshman class officers gather to discuss the problems of the day. They are David Sutton, president; Mary Jo Volpert, vice-president; Sharon Trexler, class secretary; and Nancy Phillabaum, treasurer.

A big part in anyone's book-of-memories of their days at PHS is the gatherings outside the main entrance. Freshmen will be living the part for the next four years, as the seniors realize "Memories are Made of This."

Checking over the results of the school survey are school board members: Ancil Dinsmore, Mrs. Paul Thompson, Don Mahley, Mary Robinson, secretary, Russell Rhodes, Willard Redmon, Walter O'Brian and Fred Fechtman during a regular board meeting.

School Survey Was Big Project Of New Superintendent

Mr. Fred D. Fechtman was installed as our new superintendent of schools this year. Mr. Fechtman is a graduate of Indiana University and has been superintendent of schools at Tell City, Indiana and Williamsport, Indiana.

One of the biggest projects that was undertaken this year was the Peru School Survey. The main object of this survey was to find out how and where improvements should be made in the Peru schools for the future years. All of the investigative reports were completed and then were printed along with graphs and maps of the various studies of the survey.

One of Mr. Fechtman's goals is to visit each class room at every school in Peru. He feels that in this way he can get acquainted with all of the teachers and also a great many of the pupils.

Mr. Fechtman traveled to Atlantic City, New Jersey, in February to attend the National Convention of the American Association of School Administrators.

Planning each day's schedule is the first duty each morning of Fred Fechtman, Superintendent of Peru Schools.

PHS Adds Nine New Teachers To Teaching Staff

Although teaching school and being a high school principal are not the easiest jobs in the world, the smiles of Earl Delph and his staff of teachers and administrators portray their suitability for these jobs. They are always anxious to make any adjustments in the curricular system that will benefit the students.

In addition to assuming their duties they will also assist with extra-curricular activities. This includes sponsoring clubs and supervising class plays and musical productions.

Nine new teachers were added to the faculty this year. Ted Dunn began his coaching career for Peru in the basketball field but was drafted into the armed forces before the completion of the first semester. Ray Geyer then became basketball coach in addition to teaching drivers training. Charles Craycraft became the health and safety instructor while Richard Wilbanks entered the English and history departments. Edwin Napier rendered his teaching services to the government classes and Ralph Poff began teaching history to the students of Peru High School. Mrs. William Crone assumed all responsibility in the homemaking department and became director of the school cafeteria. Mrs. Mary Jean Biddle became supervisor of all girls' athletic activities and John Beasley accepted the position of assistant speech instructor and began also to teach English.

Earl Delph, principal, discusses with Chaplain Morgan of the Bunker Hill Air Force Base the details of an auditorium to enable PHS students to become better informed on the relationship of the Air Base with Peru.

Like Father, Like Son

"Let's run through 'Them Bases'." says James Noble as he tries to get both of his sons to practice their musical instruments. Timmy seems more interested in becoming a football star than a musician. Eric practices his sousaphone with "Dad" while Dick Woodhouse (Woodie) keeps time with the music.

Activities Project Various Talents

New Monitor System Is Put Into Action By Student Council

Serious thoughts run through Carl Gross's mind as he contemplates the duties and responsibilities of a student body president.

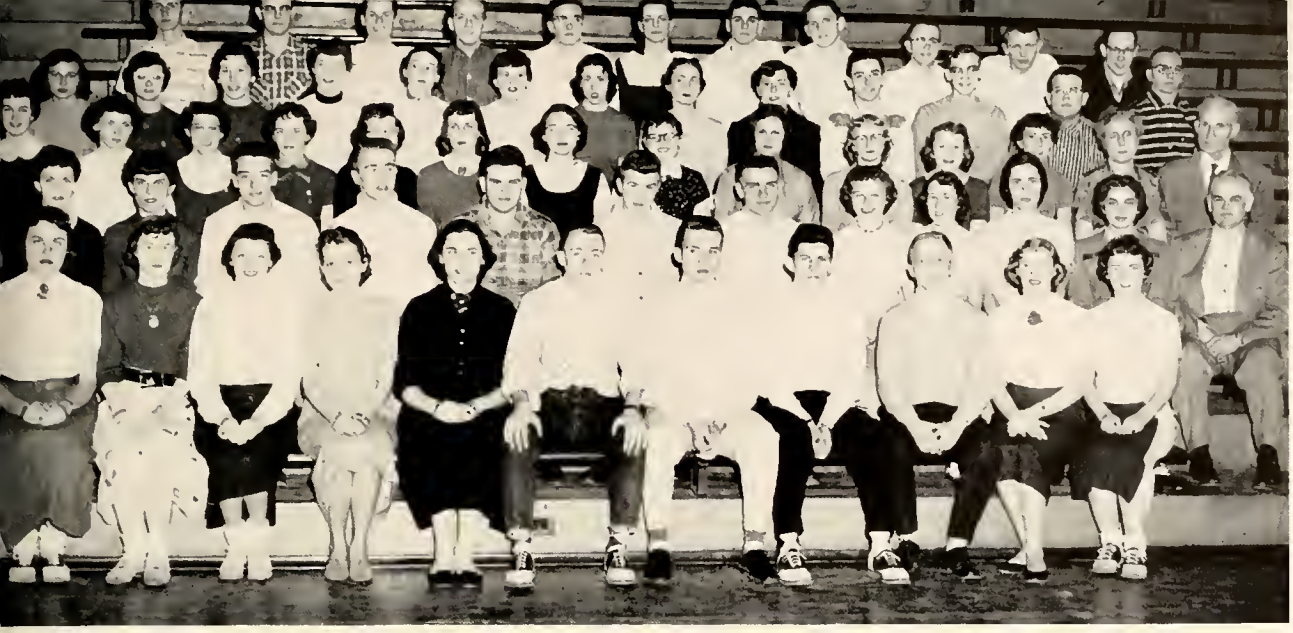
A monitor system was formed during 1955-56 for the prevention of students roaming the halls during classes. Eight monitors for each period were chosen by a student council monitor committee. Committees were also formed to help preserve and improve school facilities. Each committee has a faculty member as its sponsor.

The student council again obtained special rates on theater tickets for the students of PHS.

The officers are Carl Gross, president; Morry Mannies, vice-president; Kay Hancock, secretary; Harry Westcott, treasurer; and Ronald Daine, sergeant-at-arms. Miss Hester Wood, Richard Donovan and Edwin Napier are the sponsors.

Five students attended the state Student Council meeting at Richmond, High School, April 21. They were Jim Burnett, Marilyn Alwine, Joyce Buckalew, Harry Westcott and Carl Gross.

Carl Gross presides over another weekly session of the student council. Representatives are: Row 1: Daine, K. Hancock and Ingersoll. Row 2: J. Crawford, M. Mannies and O'Connor. Row 3: M. Myers, Carson, Wold and S. Stegman. Row 4. Burnett, Butler, Sue Branam and Noblitt. Row 5: J. Cooke, Westcott and Life. Row 6: McGrew, R. Wilson and Sutton. Row 7: Dyer and Alwine. Standing: Buckalew, Nash, Howenstine and Hemdal. Sponsors are Richard Donovan, Edwin Napier and Miss Hester Wood.



The National Honor Society initiated the largest group ever in a traditional solemn service.

Science Club members undertook many projects this year, including a Ven de Graf generator, a hi-fi phonograph, and a low temperature refrigeration unit.

Club members presented an auditorium on March 14. The play was called "The Honeymooners" and resembled the television show of the same name. Bill Fowble and Dan Roberts portrayed the main characters.

Bowling, Teachers,

Many striking events will make this year one of the most treasured in the memories of the GAA.

Numerous play days showed Peru's skillful teaching and counsel. In competitive playing, the A and B volleyball teams were undefeated.

The Y-Teens observed a thrilling and fun-packed year. In October, seniors entertained their mothers with a program from the Bunker Hill Air Force Base.

At Christmas time juniors trimmed a tree in the style of Central Europe. Juniors hosted the annual candlelight appreciation banquet in the cafeteria in April.

The symbol of all Y-Teens is shown by the triangle of members. Row 1: Reineke, Wickerham and J. Mills. Row 2: S. Holmes, S. Safety, and Various Projects Play Big Part in Student Life

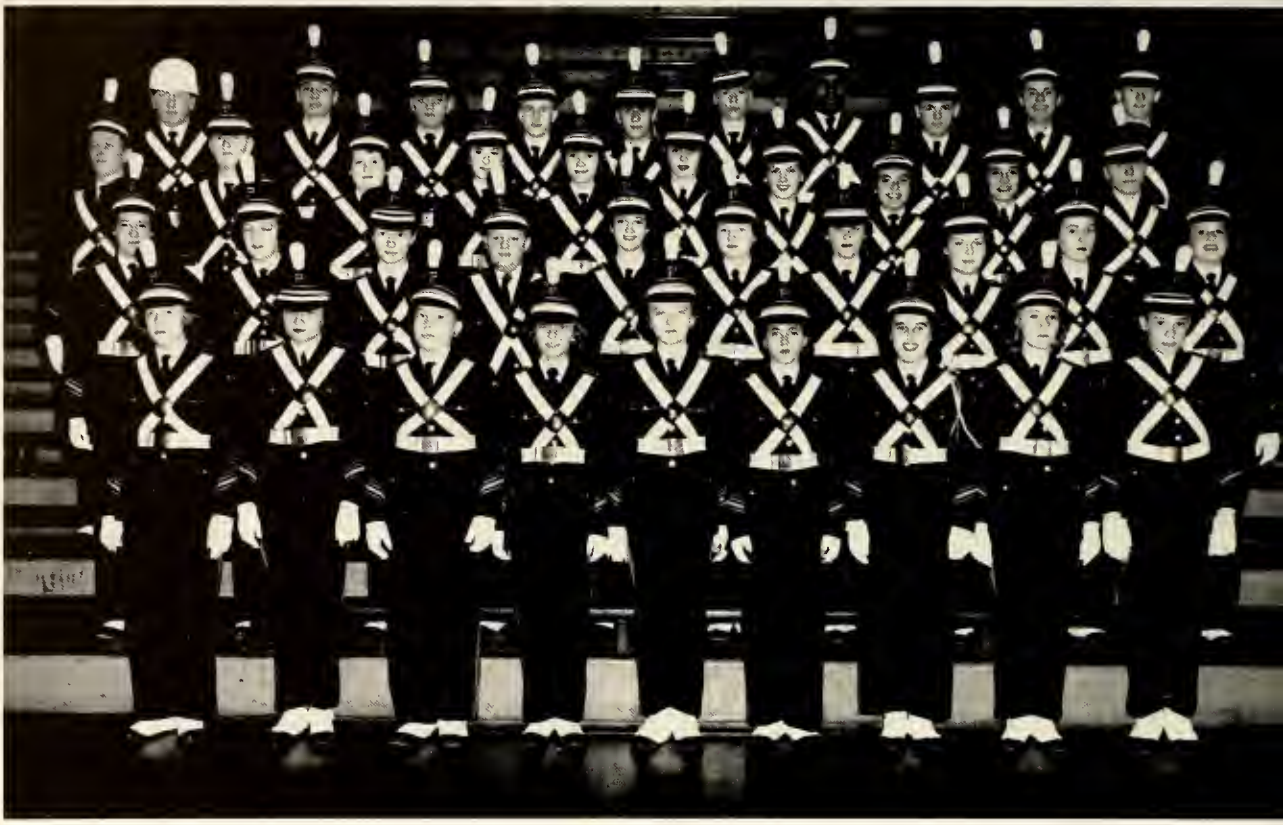
Patrol Captain Steve Dobler reminds Tibbets, Braun, Brough, Oglesby, Hohenberger, N. Hostetler, Chatlosh, McElheny and Dennis that they carry great responsibility to the students of PHS.

Keeping a watchful guard on their traffic posts, the PHS patrol boys have continued to live up to their standards of safety. Patrol boys are on duty morning, noon and after school to guard the bicycle area and the crossings at Miami and Cass Streets.

The patrol system is sponsored nationally by the Chicago Motor Club. Noel Davis is in charge of Peru High's safety patrol with Steve Dobler acting as captain.

Any boy taking classes in woodworking, machine shop, printing or drafting may apply for membership in the Industrial Club, although the club is limited to only 24 members. Meetings are held monthly in the lecture room of the industrial section under the direction of Jerry Wise, president; Bob Gordon, vice-president; Vic McKee, secretary; and Jerry Engle, treasurer. The sponsors in charge of the club are Thomas Yeager and John Cokain.

Brand new projects are displayed before the members of the Industrial Club by Russell Miller, Bob Hahn, Howard Barr and Steve Dobler while sponsors Thomas Yeager and John Cokain look on. Members are: M. Plass, J. Engle, R. Bachman, Prather, Wise, Weisenberger, Mosher, Wilburn, B. Lees, Greer, J. Richards, Waymire, Terry Aikman and D. Hiers.



Look Sharp! PHS Bandsmen, or you'll find five demerits against you. The members of the high school band snap to attention because they know the officers mean business. Row 1: V. Ferguson, K. From Butler University To Bunker Hill Air Force Base, Band projects this year covered everything from playing at the dedication of the Bunker Hill Air Force Base in wretched heat to Christmas caroling in chilling winds.

They played at all home football and basketball games, and for the basketball game between the Air Force team and Ball State and at the World Wide Air Force Tournament in the spring. This was a new and thrilling experience for them.

Playing at the Butler Homecoming proved to be an interesting and not-to-be-forgotten experience. Sore feet seemed to be the latest fad when it was marching season. Bandsmen complained long and loud about their aches and pains.

The Christmas Concert on December 21 turned out successfully. Christmas caroling took our band members through the business district during fourth period and noon. All music departments in Peru were given the chance to prove their abilities at the Spring Concert in April.

The Four-Way Music Festival came to Peru this year. A thrilling and rousing event, it added color and excitement to an ordinary school day. The parade in the afternoon was followed by an all-festival dance and the evening concert.

A new point system was introduced to the band students. Rules were set up to help band members keep out of the demerit column.

Hats, pom-poms, crossbelts, gloves, spats, instruments and other necessities must be in order when the band is called to attention. It is all important to look sharp for that big game or points will be taken off. Row 1: Hopper, Mettler, B. Geberin, M. Toepfer, Rita Wilson, Taggert, K. Doran, M. Hartleroad and J. Doran. Row 2: S. Landis, Brower, Akers, N. Rush, J. Cover, Babcoke, Foy, Burgan, Quince and Lee. Row 3: Iliff, Alwine, L. Adams, C. Wise, Dinsmore, Hemdal, Richard K. Kramer, Zerbe, N. The Band Got Around . . . .

Excellent marching drills, entertaining halftime shows and performances at the Bunker Hill Air Force Base composed the activities of the high school paraphernalia this year.

Row 1: Dangerfield, Kehler, Buckalew, S. Holmes, Hanson and C. Baker. Row 2: J. Myers, Reineke, L. Williams, Ennis, S. Rouch, M. Wilkinson. Row 3: B. Hancock, S. Thomas; S. Zavokas, Gothard, Sue Branam and C. Butzin.

Activities varied in the Tri-M Club, which is still a relatively young organization under its new name.

Mr. James Noble, club sponsor, Meda Funk, and Carol Wittig attended a convention for various Tri-M Clubs at the Antler Hotel in Indianapolis this fall. At this convention, a mock initiation was given by students from different participating schools. Meda Funk was chosen to take part in the initiation for Peru High School's Modern Music Masters. After the initiation, the sponsor of the clubs discussed the various activities in music departments.

The Club took charge of the concessions at the Air Force-Ball State College basketball game and made a profit of around $86.

An initiation took place in February and a new system was put into effect. Initiates were to accumulate a certain number of points before becoming eligible to receive their memberships.

Explanation of the Four-Way Music Festival seating arrangement is described to officers: Carol Wittig, secretary; Meda Funk, vice-president; Nancy Gothard, historian; and Jon Whitworth, treasurer; by Jon Noland, president.

Tri-M Works For Music Festival; Pep Band Rocks and Rolls

Rocking and Rolling to snappy tunes are pep band members, Row 1: L. Peters, R. Wilsan, La-hee, Featherstone, Barkdull, Zerbe. Row 2: Ferguson, A. Zinn, Akers, N. Officers Innovate Point System

"Don't goof, 'Ward.' Put the man in the correct formation," says James Noble to student director, Dan Roberts. Don Gooch, uniform manager; Ed Mishler, first lieutenant; Bill Sumpter, captain; Jon Whitworth, band manager; Janis La-hee, librarian; Kay Hancock, second lieutenant, and Sarah Wright, librarian, watch the procedure.

Lois Life and Judy Anne Myers take a short break to have their pictures taken. These busy girls have a nerve-wracking schedule because the choir depends on them for that all-important tuning note. Where the choir goes, so go the accompanists.

After the purchasing of new robes, the choir was prepared to make bigger and better appearances this year. Several new pieces of music were obtained for this year's repertoire and also new black folios for each person's music were provided.

When the choir had perfected quite a large program, they started their chain of annual appearances. Besides participating in the Christmas Concert, the All City Choral Festival, the Four-Way Music Festival, and a program at Earlham College, they also presented programs for the Bunker Hill Air Force Base, the WCTU, the Lions Club, and other civic clubs and churches.

At the beginning of the second semester the officers of the choir, Paul Bingaman, president; Nancy Brookman, vice-president; Dan Roberts, student director; Jerry Webster, librarian; John Wold, riser chairman; Don Gooch and Pat Rommelfanger, robe chairmen put together a new criteria that will govern choirs in years to come.

Choir Performs For Various Civic Clubs And Churches

Melodious tones come forth from the Peru High School Choir as Student Director Dan Roberts directs the procedure. In Row 1 are: La-hee, Vance, C. Baker, K. Fuqua, Mackey, Funk, S. Thomas, P. Davy Crockett Visits Kid Party and Snowmen Rule Sno-ball

The Girls' League started the school year off with fun for old as well as new members when they sponsored the annual Kid Party. This year's theme was "Disneyland" which, of course, called for an assortment of Davy Crocketts, Mickey Mouses, Pinocchios, Peter Pans and many others.

While snow swirled outside, 120 couples danced amid park benches, evergreens, and snowmen at the Christmas Dance, which was quite appropriately called the Sno-ball.

Mothers entered into the high school social life when the members of Girls' League brought out the traditional silver tea service and invited their mothers to the Mother-Daughter Tea.

Last-minute preparations for the Mother-Daughter Tea are made by Girls' League officers as they shine the silver tea service. Seated are Rosellen Wilson, treasurer; Nancy Gothard, president; Nancy Brookman, co-program chairman; and Kay Alspach, art chairman. Standing are Sarah Wright, co-program chairman; Marilyn Hein, second vice-president; Bette Hancock, corresponding secretary; Ruth Nash, assistant art chairman; Carol Baker, recording secretary; and Roberta Kramer, first vice-president.

Sweater Fans Dance To All Stars and "Freshies" Get Off Easy

Three hours of continuous dancing at the Sweater Hop and the removal of freshman boys' initiation were the big events in the operation of the Boys' League Representatives for the 1955-56 year.

The Boys' League under the direction of Gene Wernz, physical education instructor, also presented their annual Thanksgiving program with Captain Chaplain Morgan from the Air Base as the main speaker.

Music for the March 16 Sweater Hop was presented by the All Stars.

Boys' League officers are Carl Gross, president; Ronald Daine, vice-president; Jack Aikman, secretary; and Dennis Jones, treasurer.

Just one dime gains membership for any high school boy into the Boys' League. Carl Gross, president; Dennis Jones, treasurer; Gene Wernz, sponsor; and Jack Aikman, secretary take time out to count the money during a homeroom period.

Performing civic duties was the responsibility of the Senior Hi-Y this year. Among many other worthy projects, the boys solicited funds for the 1956 Polio Fund Campaign here at school and at the basketball games and participated in the World Day of Prayer.

Seated around the table are: M. Middlekauff, Yeatts, DeLawter, G. Bachman, Personett, Odum and G. Pope. Standing are: Chatlosh, Dobler, S. Howard, J. Carson, Webster, Norem, Ballee, D. Ellers, R. Kuntz and Mr. Davis, sponsor.

Indianapolis bound are members of the Sophomore Hi-Y. Officers Paul Smith, president; Bob Foreman, vice president; Charles Braun, secretary-treasurer; Lance Middlekauff, chaplain; and Bob Smith, sergeant-at-arms, attended the convention to study the activities of other Hi-Y groups and observe various workshops.

Seated clockwise are: Braun, Foreman, McDaniel, Gustafson, Jim Hiers, R. Black, Jerry Fuqua, L. Middlekauff, Mr. Yeager, sponsor and P. Smith.

NFL Wins Chain of Trophies

James Hawker coached a champion squad of orators and debators this year. The NFL'ers copped a bvey of trophies, ribbons and honors. They began their chain of sparkling victories with a decisive showing at Peru's own inexperienced debate. They continued this terrific winning streak by running off with the majority of events at Purdue University, Ball State Teachers College, and Fort Wayne.

Mr. Hawker's speech squadron also played host to a home meet, one of the first in recent years.

The young speakers also offered themselves to the community. By giving various demonstration debates and other entertaining programs, they served the dual purpose of good-will ambassador plus top orator.

Nothing can stop the NFL: not even rain, snow or sleet. Officers Jon Noland, president; Ed Mishler, treasurer; Morry Mannies, vice-president; and Joan Crawford, secretary, begin to realize that as Coach James Hawker warms up the motor. John Beasley, a new addition to the forensic staff, bids them good-bye.

As John Beasley counts noses, James Hawker marks down the names of those orators who wish to attend a future meet. Members are: Row 1: P. Mills, Volpert, Adams, Wheeler, Buckalew, Wright, S. "Why do these girls always gang up on me," complains Bill Fowble, business manager, as Kay Hancock and Sonja Rouch, co-editors, try to console him. Although the going was rough for this special big three, they managed to bring home the bacon to each one of you in the form of your 1956 Narcissus.

"Tales Told Around Tig-Arena" Is Now a Reality to Co-editors

Kay Hancock and Sonja Rouch blinked their eyes unbelievingly when that last letter of print was set properly in place.

It wasn't an easy chore. Many tedious, yet pleasant hours were spent wracking the brain for new ideas.

Kay and Sonja planned the Tiger Tales while at Indiana University this summer. Their outline sketch won first place in their financial division. Their budget was in the $2,000 to $5,000 bracket and yet they were rated higher than Muncie Central and other large schools in the same bracket.

Bill Fowble furnished the co-editors with both moral and financial support.

Those "Tales Told Around Tig-Arena" took a lot of roadwork.

"Slate Jungle" Presented by Jive-conscious Publications Staff

A chalky take-off on "The Blackboard Jungle" was offered by the combined forces of Narcissus and Peruvian staffs for their yearbook auditorium. Teacher Nap-pi-ae (Sarah Wright) had a hard time keeping students like Bill Fowble, Sonja Rouch, Joanne Cole, Joyce Buckalew, Bob Smith, Lance Middlekauff, and Ronnie Short in line. She just couldn't keep the eager pupils from telling all that "the new Narcissus is the book of the year."

Although Bill's past life caught up with him in the form of a passing flag pole, his only regret was the fact that he wouldn't be able to see the '56 Narcissus.

They are, seated: Joanne Cole, Marilyn Hein, Joan Crawford, and Nancy Gothard. Standing: Sonja Rouch, Nancy Brookman, Bill Fowble, Kay Hancock, Carl Gross, Sarah Wright, Joyce Featherstone and Miss Betty Jo Hudson, adviser.

The ultimate goal of every high school writer is to be admitted to the Quill and Scroll. In order to qualify for membership, they must be juniors or seniors, have 200 or more inches in print, and rank in the upper third of their class.

The Peru chapter of Quill and Scroll initiated four members this year. These members co-operated with the old members in planning the annual Publications Banquet.

Print shop boys play an important part in the everyday life of all PHS students. Besides producing the Peruvian every week, they also print absentee slips, passes, play programs and other miscellaneous items.

The boys go through four years of training. They begin as casemen. From casemen they are promoted to headsetters. The third year they may become stonemen and the last year the boys may be pressmen and turn out the finished product.

Hours of perseverance and effort were spent by the Peruvian staff making up pages and seeing that the headlines met the correct count.

Journalists Journey to Franklin, Give Peruvian New Look

The Publications Office took on a new look this year as the desks and cabinets were rearranged and labeled according to the new staff.

An innovation for this year's staff was the formation of a rim, a horseshoe shaped affair around which the staff sat to read, rewrite, copyread, and proofread stories and galley.

Marilyn Hein, editor-in-chief, and Joan Crawford, managing editor, collaborated with the associate editors on style, make-up, and content.

With the help of an enthusiastic and able group of journalists from Miss Betty Jo Hudson's classes, the Peruvian was able to turn out an eight page edition at Christmas and for the Senior Edition in the spring.

Two new features appearing in the Peruvian this year were the editor's column, "It Sez Here," and a new column designed to meet the seniors.

Members of the staff journeyed to Franklin College in Franklin, Indiana, to the Indiana High School Press Convention where they learned the new methods and techniques for improving publications.

A perfect gentleman is Phil Witt, business manager of the Peruvian, as he opens his car door for Marilyn Hein, editor-in-chief, on another daily trip to the printers.

A sneak preview of initiation is demonstrated by Pete Redmon and old members Jim Robinson, Jack Aikman, Don Williams and Jerry Korba.

P Club Initiates 27 Athletes

Members of the P Club have learned that the purpose of the club is to encourage and create interests in athletics. The club also sponsors worth-while projects throughout the year. When the club has meetings, they have discussions of sports rules and IHSAA rules.

P Club helped sponsor a dance with the Science Club after the Rochester basketball game. An annual initiation was sponsored by the club on January 25 in the Tig-Arena for the boys who wished to be admitted. The membership is open to all boys who have earned a major or minor award in any sport. There were 27 boys initiated. To close the year's activities they had thei rannual picnic in the spring.

Artists Show Soap Sculpture Winners, Decorate Polio Dance

One of the main projects of the Art Club this year was sponsoring the exhibit of the National Soap Sculpture winners in the main hall during February.

Scenery for the Rodeo, and decorations for the Christmas Dance, Junior Play, Senior Prom, and Kid Party were designed and painted by the Art Club members.

An extra project this year was the decorating for a Polio Dance sponsored by the Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority.

In the spring, two awards were given to outstanding Art Club students.

Officers of the club are Kay Alspach, president; Ruth Ellen Nash, vice-president; Linda Peters, secretary-treasurer; Roberta Kramer, sergeant-at-arms.

Industrialist G. David Thompson, former Peru student, now president of Thompson & Taylor Company, paid all the expenses of Wayne Taylor, Mrs. Taylor, and Kay Alspach for a trip to Pittsburgh, Pa., during Thanksgiving vacation.

While there they went to the 1955 Pittsburgh International Exhibition of Contemporary Paintings at Carnegie Institute. The exhibition was comprised of 328 paintings from 23 countries. Approximately one-third of the paintings were from the United States.

Tales of Sports At PHS

Outward calm shows on the faces of the Tiger varsity just as it does at game time, even though they may be bursting with inner excitement. Left to right: Kirk, Mathias, Swartz, Bingaman, Robinson, Gray, Rody, Daine, Williams, Sharpf, Shipman and Fager.

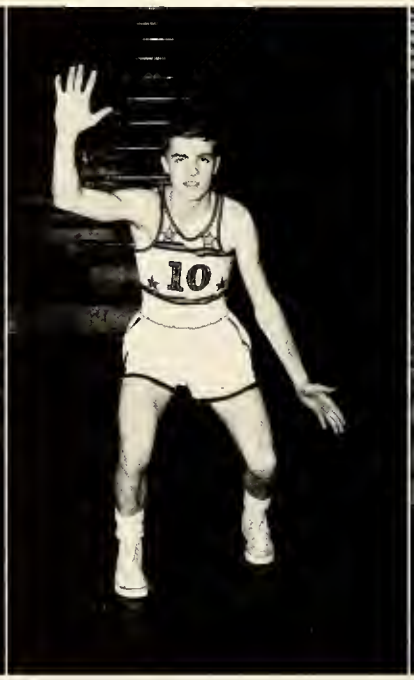
Good conduct, an even temper and team play brought the coveted Hopper Award to Larry Fager. His agility and quick reactions also won him the Best Defensive Player Award.

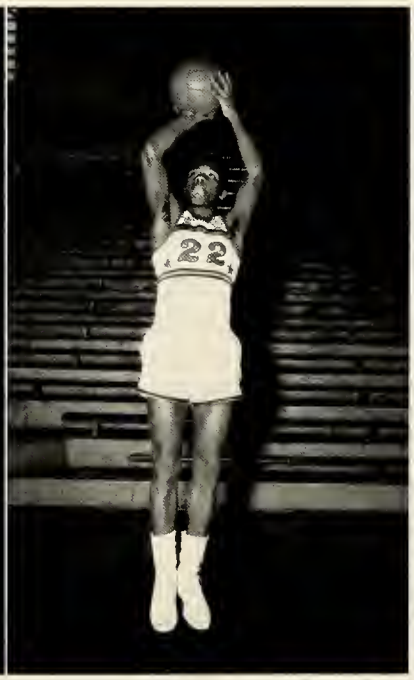
Larry Fager Wins Coveted Hopper Award For Conduct

Paul Bingaman, senior guard, was the only Tiger to get a position on the CIC second team this year.

Foul shooting accuracy proved to be Larry Sharpf's specialty as his .725 percentage gave him the Foul Shooting Award.

Spirited play and hard work earned Don Williams the Honorary Captain's position from his team mates.





Duties Vary For Staff

Folding and putting the uniforms away after a game are managers, left to right, Paul Fultz, Terry Hentgen, Todd Middlekauff and Tom Kirk. Todd is the only senior of the group and has been managing since junior high. Although a manager's day is long and hard, the boys have a great deal of fun traveling to the out of town games.

Checking the lineup at practice is head coach Ray Geyer. Making sure there will be no mistakes are frosh coach Paul Prible and B-team mentor Jack Craycraft. Mr. Geyer and Mr Craycraft are new on the coaching staff this year.

Before coming to Peru Mr. Geyer coached the Otterbien High School basketball squad. Besides his basketball duties Mr. Geyer is also cross country coach.

Mr. Craycraft was athletic director at the New Castle, Indiana, YMCA before coming to PHS. He taught swimming, basketball and gymnastics at his New Castle post. He is also taking over the golf coaching duties, filling the spot that was vacated by Toy Jones last season.

"That's the way!" Expressions worn by those on the players bench during a game may vary from gloom and despair to the heights of joy. There's no doubt which is in evidence here.

Tigers' Bad Season Puts Them In Eighth Place In CIC

Coach Ray Geyer managed to guide his first group of Peru Tigermen to a 6-12 season record that saw the Tigers win and lose in alternate streaks.

Peru opened with a win, stopping Alexandria 58-35 in a CIC tilt, but the advantage was quickly lost when the Tigermen went on a six game losing spree.

Losses included: Peru 42-Plymouth 51; Peru 46-Mississinewa 78; Peru 46-Huntington 56; Peru 55-Burris of Muncie 63; Peru 55-Hartford City 71; Peru 59- Marion 78; and Peru 47-Logansport 66.

Auburn became Peru's second victim of the year 58-52. Rochester also went down to the Peruvians 78-55.

Fort Wayne Central came close but here Geyer gained a 63-61 win. Another hard fought contest saw Tipton fall 65-64.

Elwood finished second in the CIC and showed their power defeating Peru 52-46. Wabash was unable to keep up with the Tigers and the Peru crew enjoyed a 65-56 win over the Apaches.

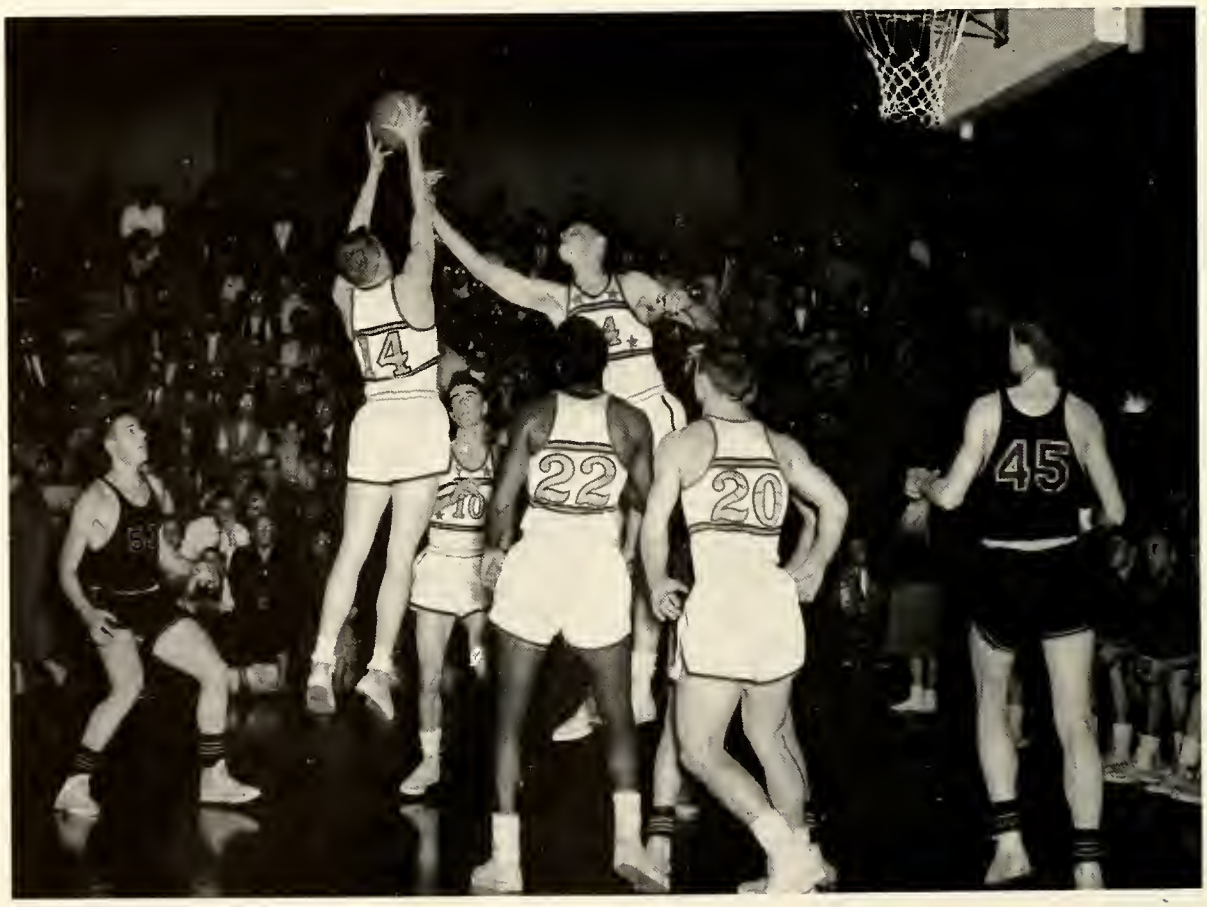
Kokomo, third ranked in the state, stopped Peru 82-51. West Lafayette added a loss 54-43, Warren Central edged the Peruvians 63-61 and Monticello ended the season for the Tigers with 72-47.

Geyer became the victim of the first year jinx as the Tigermen were unable to advance past their own sectional in tourney play.

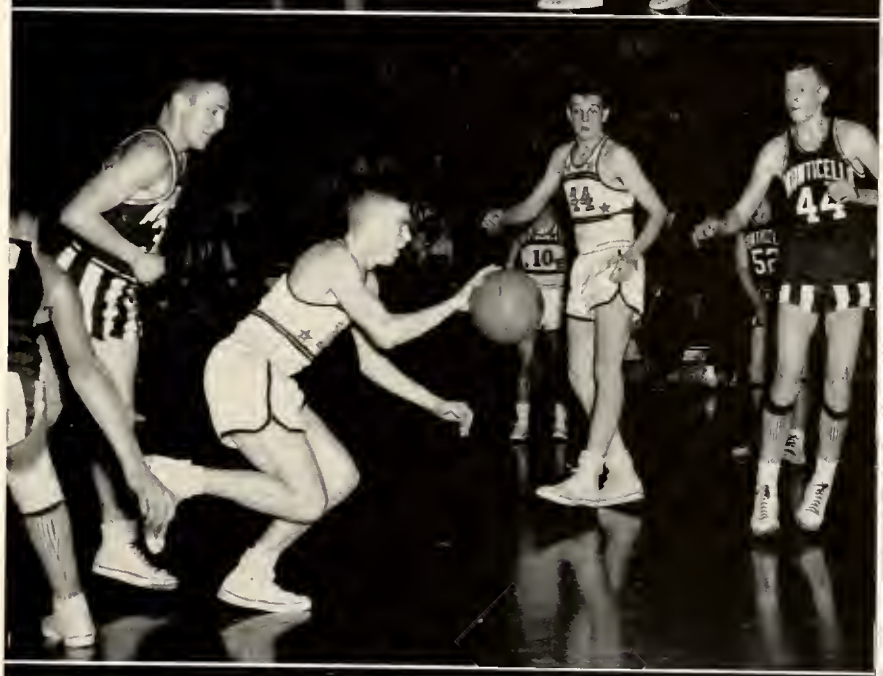
Peru stopped Macy and Chili before losing in the final game to a newcomer, Akron.

Akron, the Peru rperesentatives, lost in the afternoon game of the regionals to Wabash, the eventual champs.

Reaching up for a rebound are Tigermen Jim Rody (44) and Larry Fager (14). Waiting in anticipation are Don Williams (22), Paul Bingaman (20) and Larry Sharpf (10). Elwood, the Tigers' opposition for this game, was the eventual winner of the close contest, 52-46.



Trying desperately to score on a tip-in is Tigerman Jim Robinson (32). An unidentified Elwood player is attempting to block this shot. Another Tigerman, Jim Kirk (34), is under the basket ready to rebound. Although the game was close all the way, Elwood came out on top, 52-46.



"Let go of my foot!" is probably the thought of Larry Fager as he attempts to get by a Monticello man. Jim Rody and Larry Sharpf (10) look in wonderment as they try to figure out how Larry is managing to stay on his feet. The Tiger's put up a very strong first half but fell to pieces in the second half to lose to the CIC champions 72-47.

Attempting to complete a pass is PHS guard Paul Bingaman, but he is being closely guarded by a pair of Auburn men. Waiting for Bingaman to pass the ball to him is forward Don Wiliams. The game was bitterly contested all the way with Peru finally pulling ahead to win 55-52.

B's Drop County Tourney Overtime Thriller To Clay

The Peru B's, under the new leadership of Coach Jack Craycraft, ended up the regular season with a twelve won and eight lost record including the county tournament. During the regular season the reserves won two and lost seven.

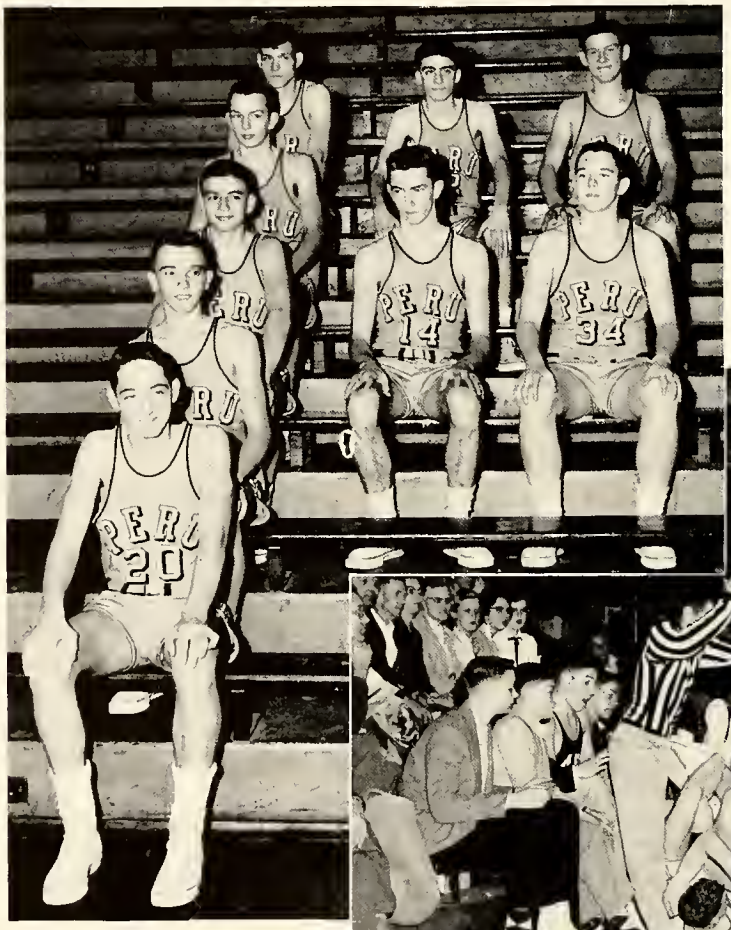
In the county tourney the Tigs downed Macy 49 to 45 and won their second encounter from Deedsville 51 to 47.

The next and final game for the B's was perhaps the most thrilling game of the tourney. They came up against the strong Clay team. It took the Indians a double overtime to defeat the reserves.

This year's team and new coach Craycraft deserve a lot of credit for combining their efforts and building the team into one of the strongest B teams to ever play at PHS.

The B team and varsity reserves proved their strength in the annual Has-Been, Will-Be game. The Will-Be's gave the seniors a rough game with the Has-Been's coming out on top in an overtime thriller 61-58.

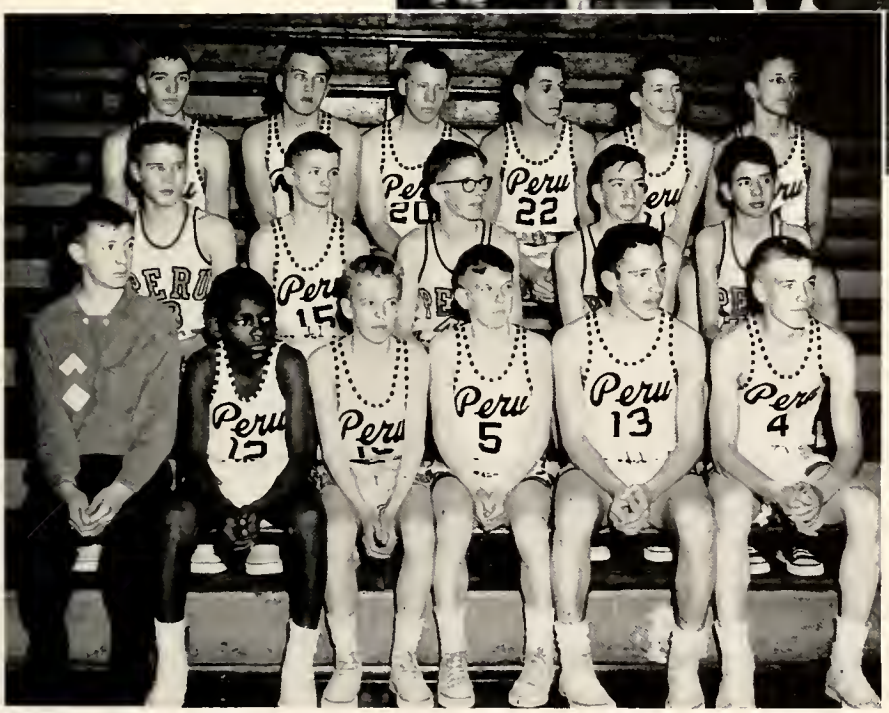
The Peru Tiger B team, forming the letter P, are counter-clockwise: Range, Cooke, Westafer, Donaldson, Durham, Sharpf, Dawalt, Wacknitz and Holland.



"Hey, which legs are mine?" wonders Larry Durham as he lies in a prone position in the Tig-Arena. Larry did a fine job of rebounding for the B's this year.

Freshmen Strive To Build Varsity Of Tomorrow

Up goes the ball as Roy Smalley prays it will find its way to the hoop. Waiting for the rebound in case of a miss is John Cypherd.



This year's contenders for next year's varsity are the freshman team. Row 1: Scott, Williams, M. Conger, Bailey, Ousley and Martin. Row 2: Smalley, Smith, Cypherd, Hammond and Callahan. Row 3: Hudson, King, H. Conger, Sterling, Fechtman and Yard

"Go get 'em, Tigers. Go get 'em" is the familiar yell that can be heard around the Tig-Arena. Always at the games giving the Tigs a boost are varsity cheerleaders Marcia Roby, Marilyn McMinn and Judy Werner.

Cheerleaders Keep Teams Spirited

Stirring up pep for the Tiger B's are B team cheerleaders Sharon Lindsey and Ann Stegman.

A look of excitement is shown by freshman cheerleaders Sherrill Quigley and Mary Lou Miller as they watch a Tiger freshman shoot for a basket that may decide the game.

Checking to see that the boys are ready for the night's run is Coach Geyer. Row 1: R. Siders, G. Donaldson, E. Range, L. Fager, J. Robinson, B. Weideman, H. Chatlosh,M. Geiselman, T. Hentgen and C. Creech. Row 2: manager T. Middlekauff, E. Holland, J. Hamman, G. Scott, J. Cooke, J. Cypherd, F. Smith, B. Oglesby, J. White, C. Meischke, G. Hays and J. Cole. Row 3: T. Stout, S. Dye, J. Stout, K. Garland, J. Rody and D. Compton.

Cross Country Team Increases Regular Season's Matches

The Peru Tigers' cross country team, under the leadership of new coach Ray Geyer, had more meets than ever before. Instead of having the usual two or three meets Coach Geyer had a schedule of thirteen meets, not including the State and CIC meets.

In the regular seoson's two-way matches the Tigs had a record of four wins and seven losses. In two triangular meets the cross country men came in first and third.

This year the CIC meet was held at Peru Municipal Golf Course. The Tigers placed sixth out of ten teams. Muncie Burris took first place honors.

Harold Chatlosh did the best for the locals by placing eighteenth. The winner of the meet was Crowell from Tipton who covered the course in 10:88.

In the sectional meet held at Fort Wayne the Tigs placed eleventh out of twenty-one teams which were entered.

Turning in their markers at the end of the CIC conference are members of the cross country team.

Kneeling are Ronnie Siders, Larry Fager, Max Geisleman, and Clyde Creech.

Standing are Jim Robinson, Harold Chatlosh, Coach Geyer, Gary Donaldson, and Todd Middlekauff, student manager.

Graduation Claims Seventeen Seniors

Getting stopped after a short gain by a Hartford City man is Paul Bingaman. Coming over to give Bing some assistance is Tigerman Jim Cress. This was the Tigers' homecoming game. The Tigers dropped the Airdales 25-6.

An unimpressive 2-6-1 record showed little reward for the 33 members of the 1955 Tiger football team as their weeks of hard work were cancelled by untimely penalties and other forms of bad luck.

Peru opened on their home grounds but could not contain Kokomo as the Kats took home a 27-0 victory.

A weak second half caused the Tiger gridmen to drop to the Logan Berries 38-7.

Hartford City came to Peru and became the Tigers Homecoming victim 25-6 but the win was cancelled by a 13-0 loss to Tipton.

The Tigers received their second CIC setback as Elwood put on a last quarter drive to win a close one 26-20.

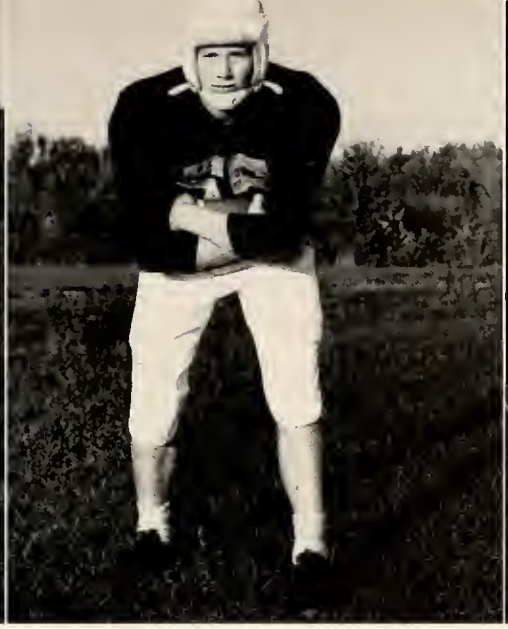
In the Monticello encounter the Tigers had to be satisfied with a 19-19 tie.

Wabash surpassed the Bengals 20-1 as 95 yards of penalties slowed the Peruvians.

Tipton gave Peru the second win of the season as two quick touchdowns gave the Tigers a 13-0 edge.

Huntington allowed the Tigers one touchdown in the final encounter of the season 27-6.

Tiger lineman Ronnie Daine was voted Honorary Captain and received Honorary All-State and CIC mention.



Most Valuable Player award went to fullback Jerry Korba, who also capped All-State mention and a CIC rating.

Most Improved Player Award went to saphomore Tam Kirk, regular B team halfback.

Comparing his trophy with another in the trophy case is Wayne Hoover who received the Most Outstanding Freshman trophy.

Taking a short rest on the sidelines during a battle at Bengal Field is Jim Cress. Jim is also receiving some needed instructions from Coach Donovan. Looking on are teammates David Catey and Carl Gross.

Gridmen Try Hard But Still Have Losing Season

Picking up yardage in the Tipton encounter is end, Don Williams. Just missing a tackle is a Tipton player lying on the ground.

Although Don finally got stopped, Larry Sharpf (48) still got in a pair of good blocks to enable Don to pick up more yardage.

Don scored the first Tiger touchdown of the season on a pass play in the Logansport game.

Giving instructions before sending the boys back into the game is Coach Dick Donovan.

The boys about ready to get into the battle are Jim Cress, Tom King and Don Williams.

Jim Cress seems to have the solution to the problem and is sketching the play on the ground.

Jerseys, pants, and helmets all play a big part in a football manager's day. Shown above are D. Cress, T. Amos and M. Ploss who seem to be hard at work folding football jerseys.

Managers Work Hard

Although the Peru Tiger football team had a losing season with two won, six lost and one tied, a lot of work was put into the developing of this team.

The team started practicing August 15. The coaching staff comprised of head coach Dick Donovan, Joe Saine, Paul Ploss and Ted Dunn worked hard with the boys in getting the team together.

Although Mr. Dunn was drafted into the Army, he did get to complete one season as coach of the B team.

Summer practices were held twice a day. One session was from nine o'clock until about eleven and the other from six to eight-thirty.

A typical practice session would include running laps and races, running through dummy plays, blocking and tackling practice, various calisthenics, punting and receiving drills and actual scrimmage.

A total of twenty-four hundred dollars of equipment was purchased during the season, including new pants and jerseys.

Discussing the day's events over "the pause that refreshes" are football coaches Paul Ploss, Joe Saine, Dick Donovan and Ted Dunn.

Mr. Donovan is the head coach and Mr. Saine and Mr. Ploss are the line coaches.

Frosh and B Teams Prepare For Varsity

The Peru Tiger B team, under the leadership of Coach Ted Dunn ended the season with a three won and three lost record. This was Coach Dunn's first coaching assignment at PHS.

Coach Paul Ploss's freshman crew started the season like they were going to win all of their games. They won the first two encounters but dropped the remaining four.

Shown below are the boys who made up the freshman football team. Row 1: Arvin, Hoover, Richards, Edwards, Grimes, K. Smith, M. Conger, Wylie and Brooks. Row 2: McKinley, T. Hudson, Ousley, North, Smalley, Tate, Williams and Metcalfe. Row 3: Ploss, B. Hudson, King, Martin, Fechtman, H. Conger, Yard, Wirrick and Sterling.

About to drive the ball off the tee, Terry Warder, regular on the Tigers' golfing team, is caught in his driving stance.

Jones Resigns As Coach

Coach Toy Jones, who rounded out his golf coaching career at PHS, had a fine season, ending up with a six won, two lost record. In the CIC Conference Meet the Tiger Linkmen finished third behind Rochester and Tipton.

Ross Kuntz was the big man for the Tigers. Ross won six of his matches and lost only one. He had one tied match.

Peru registered their best winning margin of the season in beating Monticello 12 to 0.

In the Conference meet the Tigs ran into bad luck. The first two places were a tie between Rochester and Tipton who both had a score of 344. The Tigers were next with 345. In the play-off Rochester beat Tipton in a two hole match.

In a return match with Tipton and Rochester in a nine hole affair, Peru rolled up an excellent margin over both teams. They beat Rochester by 21 strokes and Tipton by 54 strokes.

Checking off equipment before a match is former golf coach Toy Jones.

Making sure the list is correct are members of the team Terry Warder, Mick Bessignano, Byron Barrows and Ross Kuntz.

Mr. Jones resigned his teaching duties at PHS and accepted a teaching assignment in Florida

Tiger Trackmen Take Second Place in CIC Meet

Coach Dick Donovan's track team had a very fine season in compiling a five won, one lost and one tied record in the regular two-way meets.

The Tigers' one loss came from the hands of the Rochester Zebras. The Mississinewa-Peru meet also was a thriller with the meet resulting in a tie.

In the three-way meets the Tigermen took one first place and one second place. They won the three-way meet at Delphi with Logan placing second and Delphi third. This was the first meet of the season for the trackmen.

In the CIC meet held here in Peru, the Tigers came in second behind Warsaw with Muncie Burris running third.

Larry Durham won one heat in the 440 yard dash. The Tigers one-half mile relay team qualified for the regional meet and won the CIC relay.

A trophy which is awarded annually by the school for the boy who earns the most points during the season was presented to Bill Hill.

Bill was also awarded a plaque for scoring the most points in the CIC meet.

A demonstration on throwing the shot is shown here by Jerry Korba. Those watching him are, kneeling: Carl Gross, Stegman, Finster and Jaberg. Standing are: J. Floor, B. Smith, Mathias, Durham, Hill, L. Floor, D. Hoover, Lantz, Stuber and Robinson.

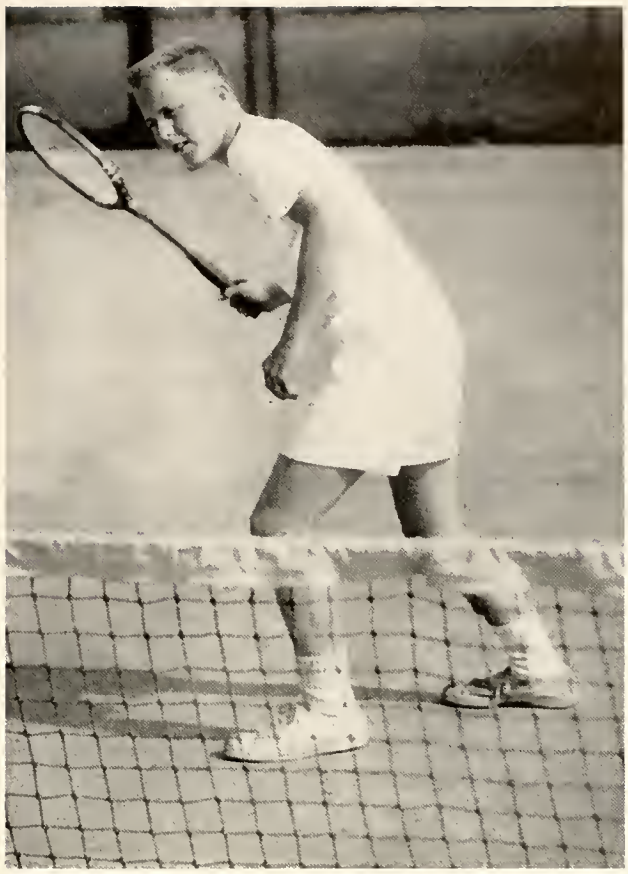
Graduation Claims Three

Coach Joe Saine's racquetmen, although hindered by a lack of experience, came out of the 1955 season with a four won, eleven lost record. Sam Gruwell, John Briggs and Dan Oury were the only seniors on the team. The Tiger netmen defeated Wabash, Rochester, West Lafayette and beat Fort Wayne Central in the last match of the season.

John Briggs was defeated in the finals of the CIC meet in Wabash, while a pair of freshmen, Butch Sorenson and Lance Middlekauff, placed third in doubles. John Wold and Sam Gruwell also participated in this tournament.

Several boys were out for the team, so before each match they would challenge each other for positions. This way competition was keen and it was always a battle to see who would get to play.

Seeing action during the season were Sam Gruwell, John Briggs and Dan Oury, seniors. John Wold was the only junior represented on the team. Sophomore netmen were Sylvan Polk and Terry Gray. Fred Rouch, Vernon Sorenson and Lance Middlekauff were the freshmen netmen.



John Wold, senior netman, is shown here as he is about to hit a forehand shot.

Kneeling are: Lance Middlekauff, Sam Gruwell and John Wold. Standing are: John Briggs, Butch Sorenson, Sylvan Polk and Dan Oury.

Varsity grapplers are, Row 1: Amos, Schrader, N. Grimes, Joe Cress and T. Brooks. Row 2: Russell Miller, Jim Cress, Redmon and Penn. Row 3: Coach Ploss, D. Harshman, Lantz, D. Bakehorn and Gochenour.

Sub-varsity matmen are, Kneeling: Foreman, Carriger, T. Jones and Dinsmore. Standing: T. King, McGinnis, J. Cover and D. Grimes.

Jim Cress Carries Off Honors In State Championship

Peru High's wrestling team took a state championship this year for the first time in PHS wrestling history when Jim Cress won in the 138-pound division.

A great deal of prestige was given to sports in PHS when Jim won the state championship. The scores of the three matches were as follows: 4-2, 6-2 and 5-0.

This year was the best all-round year for wrestling, with the team winning 6 matches, losing 6 and lighting to a draw with Jeff of Lafayette.

Receiving major awards are seven of the most outstanding wrestlers of this season. They are: Terry Brooks, Nestle Grimes, Jim Cress, Dick Harshman, Russell Miller, Buddie Penn and Dale Bakehorn.

High scorers on the team were Jim Cress, 42 points; Dick Harshman, 37 points; Terry Brooks, 36 points and Nestle Grimes, 32 points. The tournament matches are not included in these scores.

Coach Ploss has worked hard to make the wrestling team what it should be.

Getting the advantage on his opponent is Tiger grappler Dick Harshman. Dick is a senior and rounded out his wrestling career at PHS this year.

Dick was second in the total number of points earned during the year.

We've Come To The End Of The Tiger's Tale

All good things must come to an end. Ours is no different from the others. It all started with the announcement of being chosen co-editors and the thrill of being sent to Indiana University for two weeks. We never dreamed that in two short weeks we could plan an entire yearbook. It all seemed so senseless to write copy and headlines so early in the year before many of the activities had developed.

If it had not been for the helpful advice and opinions at IU of Miss Betty Jo Hudson, our adviser, it wouldn't have been possible to complete the book in two weeks.

Our thanks to John Waltz, our photographer, who spent many hours with us taking pictures and helping us with new ideas.

Our deepest thanks also goes out to "Ernie," Claude Kiser, and Bill Manmiller, all of the Sentinel Printing Company, for the efficient manner in which they handled the printing of our yearbook.

Dick Brier and the Indianapolis Engraving Company played a big part in the developing of our book. Last, but not least, our thanks go out to S. K. Smith Company for putting the finishing touches on the book by supplying us with the covers.

Many long hours of work have been put into the making of the Narcissus, but all of those hours have been pleasant and enjoyable ones, and now, at last our Tiger Tale is Told.
